The way a new design challenge evolves into something unexpected and wonderful, brainstorming unique ways to showcase old ideas or the thrill of pulling off an amazing photoshop manipulation seamlessly, is there really any better way to earn a living?

A little about me – I like to discover new music, thick novels, compelling conversation, Indian food, roller derby and World Cup soccer – with a cup of chai tea on the side, please.

I’ve got the skills, you’ve got the need. Let’s talk.
